Nancy : Hello, Kenji.

Kenji : I want to introduce you in our school newspaper. I have some questions. First, where are you from?

Nancy : I'm from the UK. I was born in London.

Kenji : ( ① )

Nancy : Beautiful parks, nice museums, and old buildings.

Kenji : I see. What sport do you like the best?

Nancy : I like tennis the best. I was a member of a tennis team in London.

Kenji : Oh! My sister is a member of the tennis club in our school now. She will be glad if you join the tennis club. Please tell me about your team.

Nancy : Our team has never won, but I enjoyed playing tennis.

Kenji : What is your favorite subject?

Nancy : I like science the best because I can learn many interesting things about the earth and nature. How about you?

Kenji : My favorite subject is PE. What other things did you enjoy in your school?

Nancy : Well, I wrote many articles for the school newspaper. It was great fun.

Kenji : Oh! Please tell me how to write good articles for a school newspaper.

Nancy : OK. I think you should ask students, teachers, and many other people about the school.

Kenji : I agree. Will you write some articles with me?

Nancy : Sure.

Kenji : That's great! Thank you, Nancy.

Nancy : You're welcome.

- (1) One day, I went shopping. I had many bags in my hands. When I was walking, one of the bags tore. Many things came out of the bag. I began to pick up the things. Some people picked up the things and gave them to me. I said, "Oh, thank you very much."

A few days later, an old man was walking in front of me. He was carrying two big bags. I said to myself, "His bags look heavy, so I want to help him." But I couldn't speak to him at first. After a while, I asked him, "Do you need help?" He smiled and said, "Yes, thank you." His smile made me happy.

(注) tore 破れた pick up ～ ～を拾う said to myself 思った

- ア. I began to pick up the things which came out of the old man's bag.
 イ. When many things came out of my bag, I picked up the things alone.
 ウ. The old man was carrying two big bags, so some people helped him.
 エ. When I spoke to the old man, I saw his smile and I was happy.

- (2) One morning, Takashi was walking with his dog. He saw a girl. She was taking a walk. She came toward him. When she saw Takashi's dog, she stopped and said, "Good morning. Your dog is pretty. Do you walk with your dog every day?" Takashi said, "Yes. Do you have a dog?" She said, "Yes. I have the same kind of dog. I came to this town with my family yesterday." He said, "Really? I want to see your dog."

At school, Takashi's teacher said to the students, "Good morning. Now I'm going to introduce your new classmate. Her name is Inoue Satomi." Later Takashi said, "I met you this morning." She said, "Oh! I'm going to walk with my dog tomorrow. Please see my dog then."

次の対話文は、Yuka と Yuka の父が、Hinoki 市に 2 人で旅行に行くための計画について、交通手段、2 人分の往復の交通費、片道の所要時間をまとめた下のメモを見ながら、話をしているときのものです。対話文を読んで、あとの各問いに答えなさい。(6 点)

Father : On Saturday we are going to visit Hinoki City. Yuka, look at this paper. I want to talk about how to get there. If we go there by car, we can arrive there the earliest. It takes only ninety minutes.

Yuka : But we have to pay the fare on the expressway, the charge for the gasoline, and so on.

Father : We have to pay about nine thousand yen in total.

Yuka : I see. This time I want to take a train or a bus.

Father : Really? Why?

Yuka : Because driving will make you tired and we have to look for a parking lot.

Father : Thank you, Yuka. We won't go there by car.

Yuka : I agree. Let's think about some other ways. How about X Company's bus?

Father : If we take a bus and leave here at nine o'clock, we will get to Hinoki City at eleven o'clock. The round-trip fare on the bus is ten thousand yen for you and me.

Yuka : I see. Well, how about a train? The fare on Z Company's train is the cheapest. It's just the half of the fare on Y Company's train.

Father : The round-trip ticket for Z Company's train is six thousand four hundred yen for you and me. But if we take a Z Company's train, it takes three hours and ten minutes. It takes too long. Let's go there in another way. I want to spend more time in Hinoki City.

Yuka : I think so too. If we take a Y Company's train, we can get to Hinoki City earlier than a Z Company's train.

Father : Well, if we take a Y Company's train and leave here at nine o'clock, we will get to Hinoki City at eleven forty. But that fare is the most expensive. I don't want to buy such expensive tickets.

Yuka : I agree. I've decided. Why don't we ( )?

Father : OK. I think it's the best idea. Let's do that.
